First Northern Donates $500 to Placer Food Bank
Proceeds from the Bank's Centennial Cookbook Netted $10,000 for 5 Area Food Banks

Dixon, California – First Northern Bank (FNRN.OB) is wrapping up its 100th year in business by donating $10,000 in cookbook sales to area food banks. Two Placer County food banks received a total of nearly $1,000, the proceeds that First Northern generated from cookbook sales in its full-service branch offices in Roseville and Auburn. Placer Food Bank received a check December 21 for $500; Auburn Interfaith Food Closet received a check December 14 for nearly $450.

All year long, Bank employees sold a commemorative cookbook, called 100 Years and Still Cooking! The $10 cookbook is a collection of favorite family recipes from First Northern Bank employees, directors and shareholders. Every dollar earned from selling the cookbook is going to help feed hungry children, adults and seniors in need.

In 2009, 14.7% of U.S. households were “food insecure,” meaning that at some time during the year, they had difficulty providing enough food for everyone. This figure remained virtually unchanged from 14.6% in 2008, according to U.S. government statistics. In Placer County, 41.3% of adults live in food insecure households, according to 2010 data from California Food Policy Advocates.

First Northern Bank has a long tradition of giving back to the communities it serves. Over the past five years, Bank employees have volunteered more than 26,570 hours of their time for community service, providing the equivalent of nearly 13 full-time staff people to nonprofits.

A few cookbooks remain available for purchase at the Bank.
