First Northern Donates $2,500 to Local Area Food Banks

Dixon, Calif. – For the second consecutive year, First Northern Bank (FNRN:OTCQB) is demonstrating its holiday spirit by donating $500 to each of these five local food banks – all within the counties the Bank serves:

- Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano
- Food Bank of Yolo County
- Sacramento Food Bank & Family Services
- Placer Food Bank and
- Auburn Interfaith Food Closet

“Hearing that more and more families are in need of public assistance, we wanted to lend a helping hand,” says Rosi Gonzalez, Vice President/Marketing. “So we proposed to senior management that the Bank forego printing and mailing holiday cards this year. We’re feeding hungry families with part of that savings.”

First Northern Bank has a long tradition of giving back to the communities it serves. Over the past five years, Bank employees have volunteered more than 32,830 hours of their time for community service – providing the equivalent of more than 15 full-time staff people – to help with such things as feeding the elderly and homeless; providing gifts for families in need and children fighting cancer; and providing safe afterschool alternatives for at-risk teens.

Since 2005, the Bank has contributed more than $1.1 million in cash and in-kind services to over 200 nonprofit organizations, 45% of which are serving people and families in need.

To help celebrate the Bank’s 100th Anniversary in 2010, the Bank donated $10,000 to the same food banks, which represented the proceeds from a Centennial Cookbook that was developed and sold by First Northern employees, shareholders and directors.
